Dumfries House Trip

Change of Scenery

During a beautiful summer day, a group of our residents decided to take a trip to Dumfries House Gardens. They packed a lovely picnic lunch and enjoyed the idyllic surroundings of the gardens.

Dementia UK Fundraiser

Fundraising Event

Our residents enjoyed throwing a fundraising party to help raise funds for Dementia UK. With the love and support from all our family and friends, the total amount raised came to a massive £141.

International Cheese Day

Delicious

On International Cheese Day, our residents indulged in a delightful celebration, savouring a selection of cheeses paired with a glass of wine. It was an enjoyable and relaxed day filled with laughter and good company.

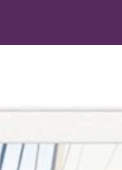

Doris Day Tribute

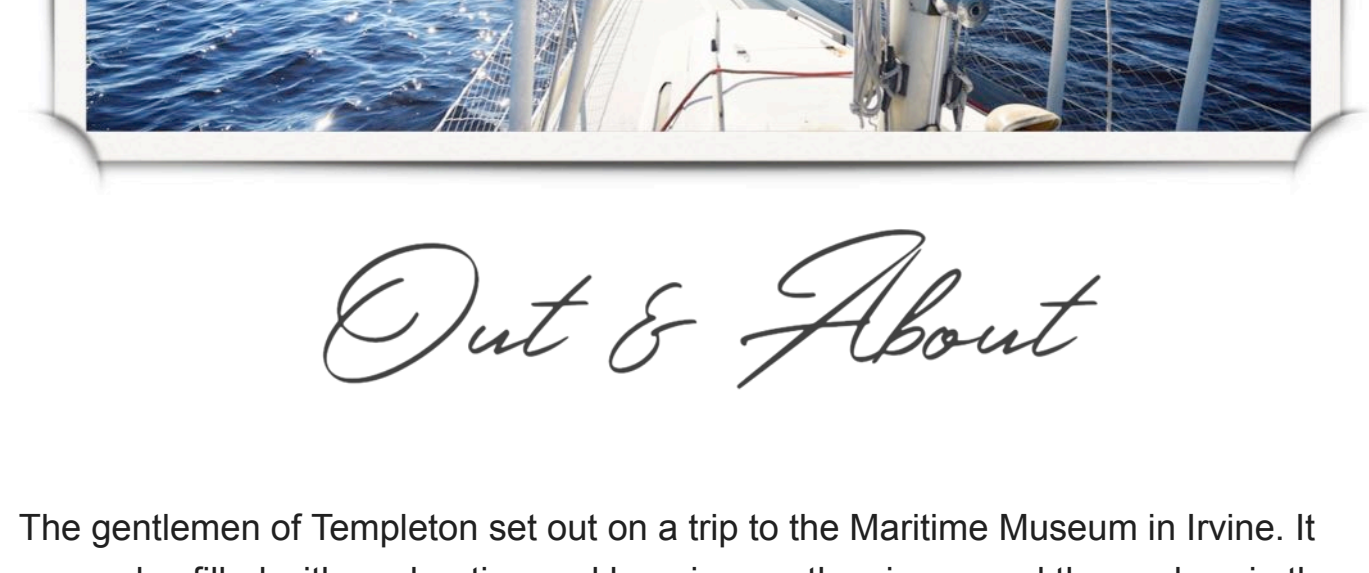

Good Times

At Templeton House, a party was hosted featuring the amazing talents of Glynis, a Doris Day Tribute Act. The residents enthusiastically participated, enjoying dancing and singing along with the amazing, Glynis.

Maritime Museum

Out & About

The gentlemen of Templeton set out on a trip to the Maritime Museum in Irvine. It was a day filled with exploration and learning, as they immersed themselves in the intriguing world of maritime history.
